

THE SMOKIN' TIRES

LET'S ROLL!

This five-piece blues band from Nashville is a powerhouse of talent, bringing together seasoned musicians from some of the greatest music scenes in the country.

TheSmokinTires.com

@thesmokintires  @thesmokintiresband

INFO & BOOKING — info@thesmokintires.com

The lead vocalist and guitarist, Fort Worth, Texas native John Cox, has a voice that perfectly captures the blues' gritty, soulful feel. Lead guitarist, Nick Spicer, hails from the soulful state of Ohio. His solos energize the audience and the stage. From Atlanta, bassist Mark Dorminy establishes a strong foundation with his steady bass lines. Hollywood-born keyboardist David Alan gives the band a classic blues sound with his incredible organ playing and provides the glue that holds it all together. The rhythm is kept tight and grooving by Seattle native Ben Rud, the drummer. Together, these musicians have a lifetime of experience playing the blues, and it shows in their tight arrangements, dynamic solos, and soulful performances.

This band knows how to keep an audience entertained whether they're playing traditional blues covers or one of their own unique songs. Every note they play reflects their love for the music, and their chemistry on stage is undeniable.

The band's professionalism and dependability make them the ideal choice for any event. This Nashville blues band is certain to make an impression on everyone who hears them, whether it's at a corporate event, wedding reception, blues club, or blues festival.

